Restriction to one of the following inventions is required under 35 U.S.C. §121:

- I. Claims 1-12, drawn to a method of folding a peptide
- II. Claims 13-27, drawn to a method for preparing proteins.

The claimed inventions are distinct.

Although claim 1 recites the phrase “chemically synthesized polypeptides”, Group I does not actually require that any synthesis step be undertaken. If one purchases a peptide from a chemical company, and treats the peptide with an agent that (reversibly) reacts with thiols, that is sufficient (insofar as the “chemically synthesized” issue is concerned). Group II, on the other hand, requires that a chemical synthesis be undertaken.

Applicant is advised that for the response to this requirement to be complete, an election of the invention to be examined must be indicated, even if the requirement is traversed (37 C.F.R. 1.143).

Applicant is reminded that upon cancellation of claims to a non-elected invention, the inventorship must be amended in compliance with 37 CFR 1.48(b) if one or more of the currently named inventors is no longer an inventor of at least one claim remaining in the application. Any amendment of inventorship must be accompanied by a diligently filed petition under 37 CFR 1.48(b) and by the fee required under 37 CFR 1.17(h).

In addition to the foregoing, applicants are required under 35 U.S.C. §121 to elect disclosed species (as follows) for prosecution on the merits to which the claims shall be restricted if no generic claim is finally held to be allowable.

In the event that Group I is chosen for initial examination, the species to be elected are as follows:

- (a) a specific polypeptide which is to be folded
- (b) a specific "chaotropic salt" which must be present during the folding
- (c) a specific pH at which the folding is to take place
- (d) a specific reducing agent (e.g., cysteine) that is present in the folding buffer

In the event that Group II is chosen for initial examination, the species to be elected are as follows:

- (a) a specific protein which is to be folded
- (b) a specific "chaotropic salt" which must be present during the folding
- (c) a specific pH at which the folding is to take place
- (d) a specific reducing agent (e.g., cysteine) that is present in the folding buffer
- (e) a specific method of purifying the folded protein (e.g., AEC, CEC, HIC, HILIC/CEC, DC SDM, RP-HPLC; see page 8, line 15+)
- (f) a statement as to whether the protein is to be synthesized in solution or on solid phase
- (g) in the event that the protein is to be synthesized on solid phase, election of a specific solid phase support is required (e.g., polystyrene);

(h) in the event that the protein is to be synthesized on solid phase, election of a specific linker is required (e.g., hydroxymethyl phenoxyacetic acid)

Applicant is advised that a response to this requirement must include an identification of the species that is elected consonant with this requirement, and a listing of all claims readable thereon, including any claims subsequently added. An argument that a generic claim is allowable or that all claims are generic is considered nonresponsive unless accompanied by an election.

Upon allowance of a generic claim, applicant will be entitled to consideration of claims to additional species which are written in dependent form or otherwise include all the limitations of an allowed generic claim as provided by 37 CFR 1.141. If claims are added after the election, applicant must indicate which are readable upon the elected species. MPEP 809.02(a).

Should applicant traverse on the ground that the species are not patentable distinct, applicant should submit evidence or identify such evidence now of record showing the species to be obvious variants or clearly admit on the record that this is the case. In either instance, if the examiner finds one of the inventions unpatentable over the prior art, the evidence or admission may be used in a rejection under 35 U.S.C. §103 of the other invention.
